Your Degree Option

K-State offers a Bachelor of Science degree in Interdisciplinary Social Science through distance education. This degree completion program is designed primarily for students who have completed the equivalent of the first two years of college. Social science is a branch of learning that examines society's institutions—their structures, theoretical foundations, evaluation, and interrelation—and how they affect and are affected by human behavior. Applications for admission to this program are accepted through the Bachelor's Degree Completion Program in the K-State Global Campus.

Your Career

Kansas State University's social science graduates find jobs across the entire spectrum of private, public, and governmental positions. Some jobs held by social science alumni include: Loan Processor, Manager/Assistant Manager, Administrative Assistant, Research Investigator, Case Manager, and many more. The social science degree prepares graduates for the workforce by developing research skills, communication skills, critical thinking, and team project experience.

Note: Kansas Board of Regents requirements have been incorporated into this degree plan, including the following rules governing bachelor's degrees:

- A bachelor's degree must include at least 120 credit hours;
- It must have at least 60 credit hours earned from an institution where the majority of degrees granted are at the bachelor's degree level or higher;
- It must include at least 45 credit hours at the junior level (numbered 300) or higher;
- Each student must successfully complete credit-bearing courses/experiences to cover all of the K-State 8 areas.

Kansas State University will accept up to one-half of the required credit hours from the community college toward the bachelor's degree.

Consultation with your K-State Academic Advisor is required in construction of a social science theme proposal. Information on theme proposals is available at: www.k-state.edu/artsci/interdisciplinary/social\_theme\_shtml.

Students may apply to K-State's Bachelor's Degree Completion program in Interdisciplinary Social Science with 30 transferable semester credit hours completed and a
