Your Degree Option

K-State offers a Bachelor of Science degree in Interdisciplinary Social Science through distance education. This degree completion program is designed primarily for students who have completed the equivalent of the first two years of college. Social science is a branch of learning that examines society's institutions—their structures, theoretical foundations, evaluation and interrelation—and how they affect and are affected by human behavior. Applications for admission to this program are accepted through the Bachelor's Degree Completion Program in K-State Global Campus.

Your Career

Kansas State University's social science graduates find jobs across the entire spectrum of private, public and governmental positions. Some jobs held by social science alumni include: Loan Processor, Manager/Assistant Manager, Administrative Assistant, Research Investigator, Case Manager and many more. The social science degree prepares graduates for the workforce by developing research skills, communication skills, critical thinking and team project experience.

Get Started

The degree map on the reverse page will show you a listing of classes you need to take from Pratt Community College and K-State to complete the Associate in Arts—History and Interdisciplinary Social Science 2+2. This degree map has been reviewed and accepted by both schools as an illustration, which is subject to change. Many other combinations of courses may be possible, so students should contact a K-State representative or their community college advisor before committing to a particular transfer program.

To learn more about the Interdisciplinary Social Science degree:

To apply to K-State, fill out the application, pay the application fee, and have all of your previous transcripts sent to the K-State Office of Admissions. More details about this process can be found at: <http://global.k-state.edu/artsci/social-science/admission>

Bachelor's degree, and beyond

Take the next step! Check out K-State's options for going beyond your bachelor's and toward an online graduate degree. Consult with your advisor to find a program that best fits your needs. <http://global.k-state.edu/courses/degrees>

Note: Kansas Board of Regents requirements have been incorporated into this degree plan, including the following rules governing bachelor's degrees:

- A bachelor's degree must include at least 120 credit hours;
- It must have at least 60 credit hours earned from an institution where the majority of degrees granted are at the bachelor's degree level or higher;
- It must include at least 45 credit hours at the junior level (numbered 300) or higher;
- Each student must successfully complete credit-bearing courses/experiences to cover all of the K-State 8 areas.

Kansas State University will accept up to one-half of the required credit hours from the community college toward the bachelor's degree.

Students may apply to K-State's Bachelor's Degree Completion Program in Interdisciplinary Social Science with 30 transferable semester credit hours completed and a minimum 2.0 GPA.

Notice of Nondiscrimination

Kansas State University is committed to nondiscrimination in admissions, programs and employment. Inquiries and complaints: Contact Director of Institutional Equity, Kansas State University, 103 Edwards Hall, Manhattan, KS 66506-4801, (Phone) 785-532-6220; (TTY) 785-532-4807.
